

An abstract artwork featuring a complex texture of brown, white, and blue. The brown areas are layered and fibrous, resembling aged paper or bark. White speckles and fibers are scattered throughout. Blue lines and patches are visible, particularly on the right side. The overall composition is organic and layered.

WATER WAYS

The Shippon Gallery

18th April - 31st May 2026